

Severn Bridge Maintenance Carriage

Mecelec Design was commissioned to produce the concept and detail design of the maintenance carriages that run beneath the new Severn Bridge crossing between England and Wales.

Mecelec Design worked closely with the civil Engineers to arrive at a design that met all of the mechanical requirements within stringent Health and Safety guidelines.

The Carriage was fully modelled in 3D using AutoCad Inventor

